An Ari Tison Reading Challenge

Pura Belpré and Walter Award winning author, Ari Tison, appreciates unique craft structures. She wrote her debut novel, "Saints of the Household," in both prose and verse. Here she has curated a list of young adult books that utilize creative craft structures. Her list includes books that play with time, point of view, community voice, oral storytelling, episodic storytelling, and much more.

Add these to your library queue and mark them off as you read!
