

A vibrant, cartoon-style illustration of a carnival scene. On the left, a Ferris wheel with red and teal striped gondolas is partially visible. In the foreground, a large, colorful tent with red and yellow stripes and a red top is set up on a dark purple base. To the right of the tent, a yellow banner with five red stars is partially shown. The background features a light blue sky with a white cloud, a white sun, and a stylized white building with a blue roof. The overall aesthetic is bright and cheerful.
